3 May 1963

1. Jim Garrison reported that the contracting officers working for Pete Scoville have been awarding some of the NPIC contracts without his knowledge. He wanted to know whether he should challenge this; I told him that I thought he should. This doesn't mean that he might not decide to have the contracts handled by the OSA groups, but neither NPIC nor Pete has authority to make this decision without first consulting the Director of Logistics.

2. Jim also reported that, according to the [REDACTED] the concept of their project is changing radically; and he anticipated that we would be closing out [REDACTED] in the not too distant future.
